KINDERGARTEN ACTIVITIES

"Two Little Hands High in the Sky" is a phrase often heard in the kindergarten room along with many other finger and action plays.

Our units throughout the year include the following: Family and Home Life, Nursery Rhymes, Transportation, Pets, Safety, Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Toys, Circus, Winter Activities, Winter Birds, Community Helpers, Valentine's Day, Patriotic Holidays, The Playhouse, The Farm in the Springtime, and the Garden. Our numbers, literature, music and art are correlated with these units.

FAIRVIEW KINDERGARTEN

The beginning enrollment of our kindergarten class at Fairview was fourteen. Kim Frederickson moved to Minnesota and our dear Lynette Clausen passed on. Now we have twelve pupils.

We finished "We Read." Kindergarten Activity book was used as needed throughout the year. It is nearly completed. Our numeral book is almost finished too. The children can write up to 10 and can count up to 10 in both English and German.

We have studied the weather, plants and animals in science, using the Concept Charts and finding them very helpful.

Music has been a happy time for us — learning songs and singing games, hearing records and enjoying a Rhythm Board. We participated in three Community Meetings. The children put on their own Halloween, Christmas, Valentine and Easter parties. They are planning a coffee for their mothers.

Several of the children celebrated their birthdays. The year has been most pleasant for both the children and their teacher.

FIRST GRADE ACTIVITIES

In first grade, we learn many new things for the "first" time.

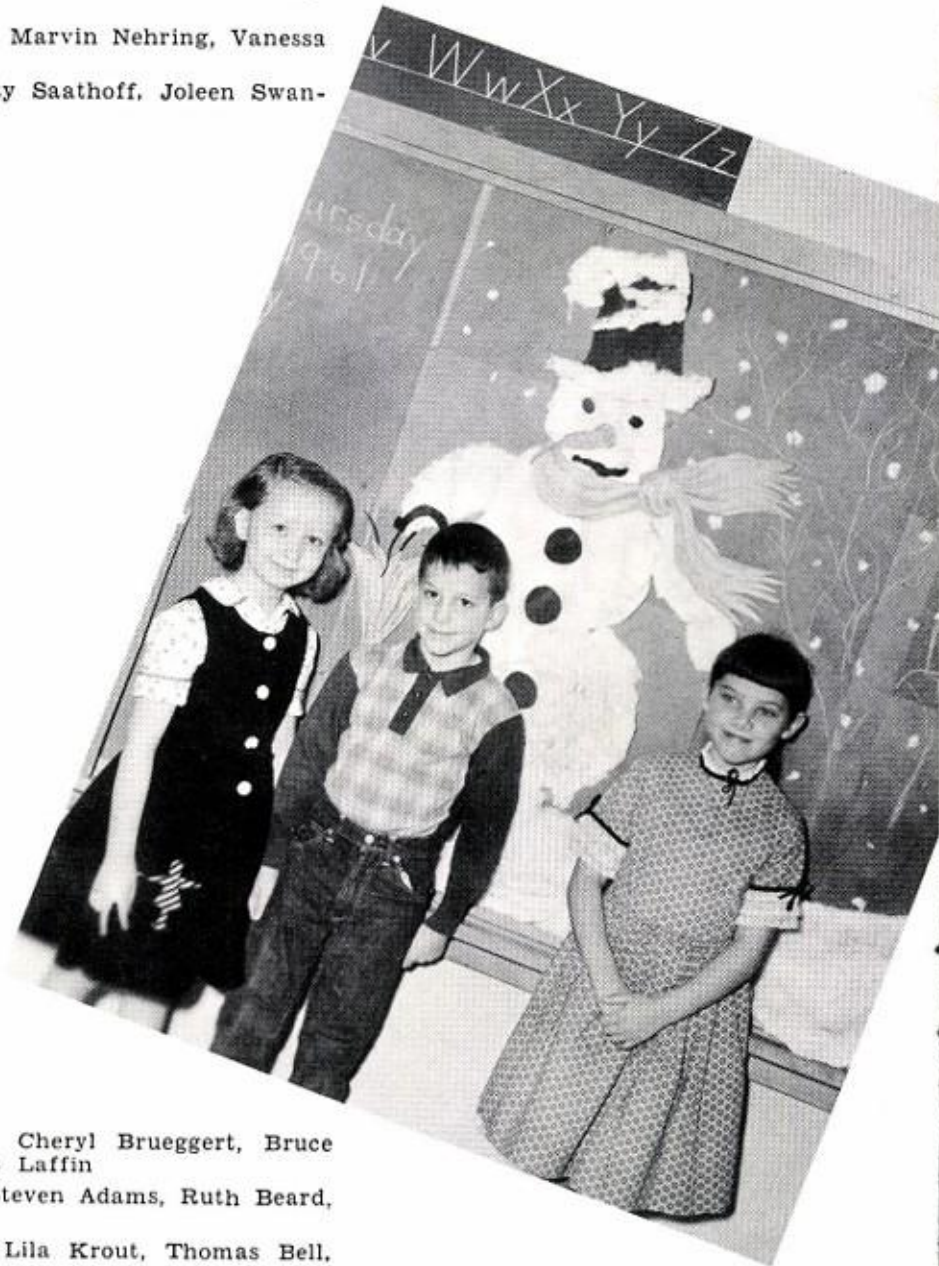

We are re-acquainted with Dick, Jane, and Sally, and learn to read real stories about them. Meeting some of their friends proves interesting toward the end of the year. Everyone likes reading class and by the end of the year, we are amazed at the long list of words we can recognize.

Our phonics helps us to sound out words for ourselves and we make large consonant charts.

In numbers we begin with concepts of many and few; next the groupings of addition are learned, measurement, money, and time telling are also encountered.

In the spring we grow our own garden, talk about different phases of weather, and take a field trip to highlight our unit on birds.

We especially enjoy Halloween, Christmas, and Valentine's Day as we have special parties on these days.

FAIRVIEW FIRST AND SECOND GRADE ACTIVITIES

Twelve first graders and ten second graders began school this year. Gayle Frederickson left us in December, and we welcomed Craig Rehnstrom in March.

To be good readers is the goal for all in these grades. It has been fun to dramatize stories, both with live characters and puppets.

It has been surprising to discover how much we learn about number facts, science all around us, health rules, social studies, and writings.

October was out month to be on the program for Community Meeting. Also, we sang in the choir for the Christmas program.

Third row: David Brinkman, Jimmy Good, Beverly Christensen, Jackie Adams, Sharon Magnuson, Jonnie Hansen, Vicky Peterson

SECOND GRADE ACTIVITIES

The second graders have enjoyed an interesting and profitable year.

The children have a genuine interest and desire to read. They have completed three basic textbooks, they are accompanied by workbooks and in addition have read several supplementary readers.

We strive to achieve in arithmetic further understanding of the meanings and relationships of numbers. They learn combinations up to eighteen; number names and their meaning; value of money up to fifty cents; and measures.

The class completed three phonics books and a language readiness book.

In science we study about space, time change, interrelationships variety, adaptations and balance. Correlated, with this subject we had excursions studied various items, and enjoyed filmstrips.

Social studies help the children to develop independence and in solving problems involved in group living. "Hello David" and "Someday Soon" are the two textbooks used in this course.

The spelling workbook is introduced in this grade. The first half of the year deals with only the simplest words. The second half, the words are met in context and studied in lists. They also make the change from manuscript to cursive writing.

FAIRVIEW THIRD AND FOURTH GRADE ACTIVITIES

The third and fourth grades had two teachers. Mrs. McMurray taught the first semester, and Mrs. Gould the second semester.

Dari Holmes joined us in fourth grade in December. Douglas Mattson entered as a new pupil in September. Steven Mallison and John Schuldt left us.

For our part in the Community Meeting, we gave a Thanksgiving play in November. This was especially interesting to us because of pioneer reading units and our social studies of the colonies.

The third grade wrote and presented a puppet show on a fire ranger's duty and dangers, during Fire Prevention Week.

After Christmas the third graders worked on an Indian unit for social studies.

The use of maps and globes has brought the world closer to us. The fourth graders experiences with these have been fun.

THIRD GRADE ACTIVITIES

The third graders became more independent readers and the stories read came to life as they were dramatized. Along with the reading, the students learn to divide words into syllables, tell which syllable is accented in a word, and how to use prefix and suffixes.

In English we studied writing good sentences, friendly letters, and learned good telephone manners.

Arithmetic found them progressing rapidly as they learned to carry in addition, borrow in subtraction, multiply and divide. Telling time, counting money, and working with measurements were also accomplished.

Several field trips were taken throughout the year to increase interest in social studies.

Third row: Janet Sinns, Vicki Wolfe, Steven Strom, Mike Peterson, Teddy Mahn, Terry Binder, Ricky Benson, Kathy Peterson

FOURTH GRADE ACTIVITIES

The fourth graders have been enjoying visits to the newspaper office in Alta, and also to the Cherokee Museum. They have composed a play about Columbus and they have given a play for the first grade pupils called Hansel and Gretel. They have had two puppet shows, Traveling Around America and Favorite T.V. Programs. They have enjoyed Valentine, Halloween, and Christmas parties. The fourth grades have enjoyed trips of exploring the sea. They have had a trip to the moon. They have been studying about New Mexico and have been learning some of the Spanish words that are spoken there and also some other facts about Mexico. They have been trying to master new tricks with arithmetic numbers and improving their reading.

FIFTH GRADE ACTIVITIES

We have completed many projects this year. Our subjects have been arithmetic, English, phonics, reading, spelling, health, science, and social studies. A Map Skills booklet is also used as we study the fifty states and neighboring countries.

Both of our rooms have had spelldowns and some arithmetic games. In English we had Geography Club meetings when we gave various reports in correlation with social studies. In health we studied different things about our body. In language, the parts of speech were hard for some of us. In reading we have read two books, used a phonics workbook, and enjoyed the Weekly Reader.

FAIRVIEW FIFTH AND SIXTH GRADE ACTIVITIES

Many changes have been made in the fifth and sixth grade this year: Mrs. Jensen substituted many weeks for Mrs. Gould; Linda Rath moved to Storm Lake; Rodney Frederickson moved to Wisconsin; and the third week of the second semester Mr. Thieman took over the two grades. The enrollment now consists of six fifth graders and eight sixth graders.

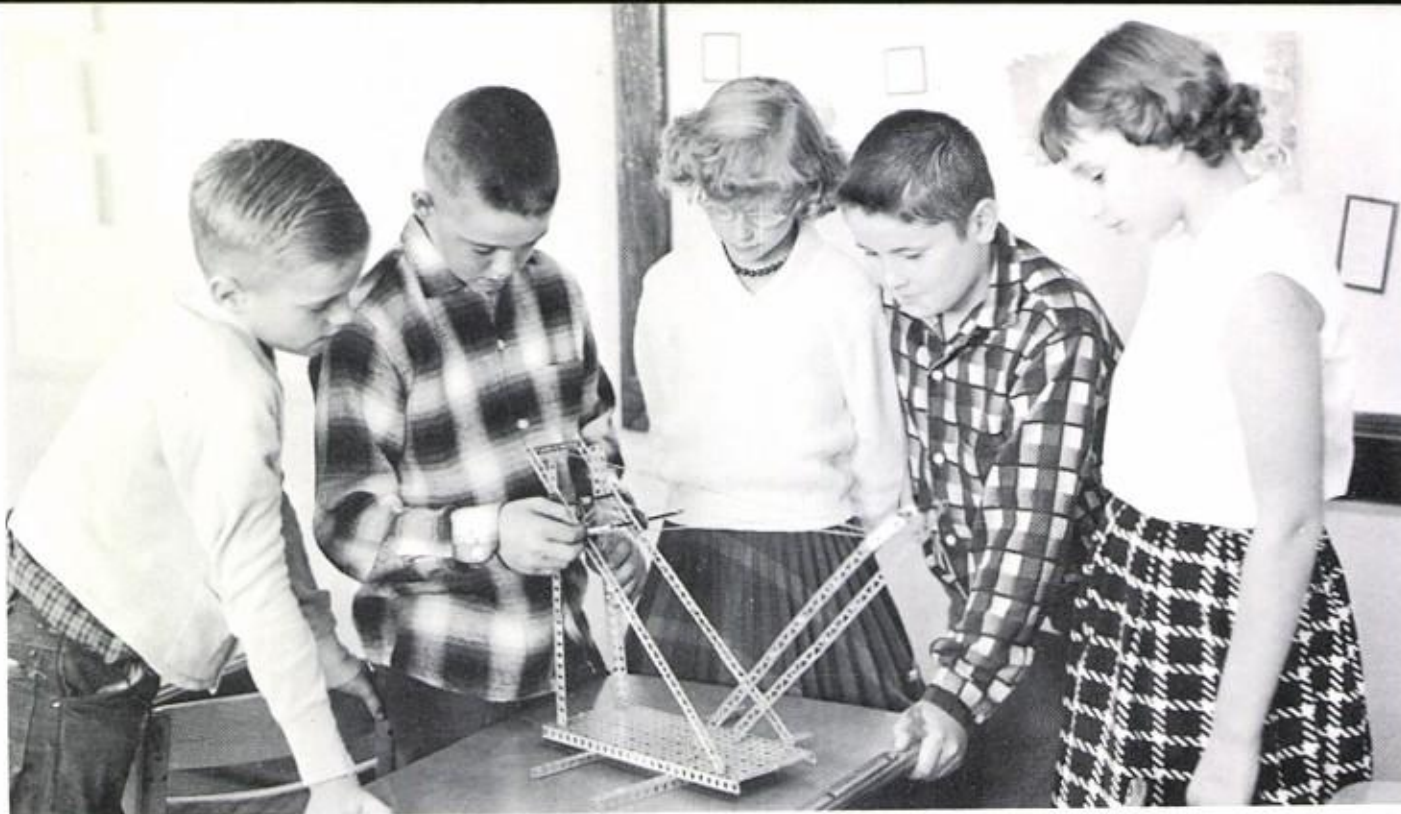

Besides regular class work the fifth and sixth graders entertained the mothers at a Valentine party.

For Community Meeting, the fifth and sixth grades presented a Minstrel Show.

Junior High is the time of growing up. When we become seventh and eighth grade students we are making an important step in preparing for high school.

As junior high students, we are busy with many extra curricular activities. The boys who are interested in athletics may participate in football and basketball. Many junior high students are in the high school and junior bands. During the school year we also have many parties including a Christmas party and two skating parties. At the end of the year we have a picnic.

The coming of age of the freshman — the hatching of a new class of fledging preps — once again emphasized for most of us the fresh stage of action, the new look of our own approaching maturity. Those who used to seem so much younger were now arrived at the plateau which we so recently left, and we were faced with the fact that we age and are no longer quite the same as those past forms in our reminiscences.

Now occupying a second-story room, the frosh were never-the-less initiated into the pace of high school life — being guests of the sophomores at a mid-October beatnik party. Dating, music, athletics, organizations, and a participation in most high school activities marked their metamorphosis. "We'll Bulldog 'em," the freshman float this year, was done with a splash of color; but the "Bulldogging" Cyclone sagged, and the freshman received a fourth place rating.

Basic courses this year were math, science, and English. Girls were required to take home economics; boys, industrial arts or agriculture. Classes were once again divided. Thus passed another year and a new order, another layer of the accumulated experience upon which we all stand.

Our sophomore year started with a "bang." We worked hard on our homecoming float, "Alta Will Reign," and won a much deserved first place. Peg Kindwall and John Nordman were chosen as homecoming attendants from our class.

We find ourselves with much more homework this year than in our freshman year. We blame it on the teachers, of course, like most normal sophomores do. Our studies include English and world history, these courses are required, many of the sophomores wonder why. Driver's education, which has been required in past years, became an elective course this year. Other courses include algebra, homemaking, agriculture, and biology. Physical education is also required twice a week. In case you don't have a free period for physical education, you have to participate in a sport or, for the girls, go out for GRA.

Extra-curricular activities include GRA, FHA, and drill team for the girls. For the boys there are FHA, football, basketball, and track. Musical activities include Girls' Glee Club, Boys' Glee Club, and Mixed Chorus. There are also small vocal groups. Marching band and concert band are also enjoyed by many.

For our Freshman-Sophomore party, the sophomores treated the freshmen to a beatnik party. Everyone came dressed as a beatnik and it was quite a sight. We received a party from the freshmen at the end of the year.

Our class had two special projects to raise money, one was a car-wash and the other was a pigeon hunt.

As Juniors we are now nearing the first plateau of higher education. Life has become a more joyful, meaningful, and serious thing. Many new privileges and responsibilities have come to us. And school has become the center of our activities. Since our class is one of the largest to ever come through the Alta Community School, we have followed many different paths and have created many impressions both good and bad, far and near. But each and everyone still feels that he or she is a part of the group.

In recent years the accent has been on education and we have a great variety of choices: home-making, agriculture, shop, a foreign language (German), office work, law, geometry, or chemistry besides the required English and United States history.

At the beginning of this year we had a good time trying to throw together enough napkins and chicken wire to make a float. The next major project was the Junior Class play, "Girl Shy" which was on the average an entirely new experience for us. And as juniors we inherited the junior stand and the sole operation thereof. To this the overflow from music and sports is directed and these breadwinners for the junior class may be found at both football and basketball games. And last but not least, is the Junior-Senior Prom which serves as sort of a finale to the school year. It is a last blast of cardboard, color, music, fancy clothes, and mixed emotions, and to the struggling junior a sure sign that summer vacation is coming.

We're proud of our Alta High School faculty because, for the most part, they're not only devoted instructors but they're interested in many and various other activities of the community. Members of the faculty attend summer school, manage the swimming pool, coach baseball, help the fire department, paint, and do various other things.

Their job alone is time consuming with all the unnoticed duties beyond school hours. Each is a class sponsor and is expected to attend class meetings and parties. They're also to be present, if possible, at the numerous athletic contests, and music and dramatic presentations. These activities leave little time for them to lead their own lives.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

The Alta High School Instrumental Music Department has had its most successful year under the direction of Mr. Schive.

The band not only produced ten division I ensembles and six division I soloists, but also captured division I ratings in both marching band and concert band. This marks the first time this has happened in at least 15 years.

The band's first public appearance was the second day of school for the annual flag raising ceremony. This was followed, in rapid succession, by two months of hard work during which the band appeared at four home football games, the high school homecoming parade, state marching band contest held here at Alta, and the western Iowa Band Festival at Carroll, Iowa.

As its first venture indoors, the band was cut to seventy members and the first annual Pops concert was presented on December 6. The band also appeared on the annual Christmas program in conjunction with the vocal music department.

The seventh annual tri-school festival was held by the combined bands and choruses of Aurelia, Albert City-Truesdale and Alta. The band was guest conducted by Mr. Raymond DeVilbiss of the University of South Dakota at Vermillion.

The next big date on the bands calendar was the sixth annual all Northwest Iowa High School Band Festival. Four Alta musicians were chosen to participate. They were Alice Noble, flute; Karen Lietz, bass clarinet; Carole Walton, baritone saxophone; and Roger Anderson, trombone.

The festival band was under the direction of Clarence Sawhill, Director of Bands at UCLA.

Buena Vista College invited the band to present a concert at one of their student convocations. This concert was fulfilled on April 5, and was well attended and very well received.

Ensemble and solo contest was held at Newell on Saturday, April 8. The following division I's were received: Sally Carpenter, flute solo; Beverly Sassman, clarinet solo; Karen Lietz, bass clarinet solo; Beverly Lietz, tenor saxophone solo; Roger Anderson, trombone solo; Paul Ruehmann, trombone solo; flute trio; flute quartet; clarinet trio; clarinet quartet; woodwind trio A; woodwind quartet; miscellaneous group of woodwinds; woodwind choir; trumpet quartet and trombone quartet.

The following soloists and groups were awarded division II's: Alice Noble, flute solo; Ruth Ann Peterson, flute solo; Versa Gentis, alto saxophone solo; Marilyn Murphy, tenor saxophone solo; Richard Groth, tenor saxophone solo; Douglas Patten, trumpet solo; Miriam Peterson, trumpet solo; woodwind trio B and brass choir.

The band performed a most difficult number for large group contest at Linn Grove. It was Gustav Holst's Second Suite for Military Band in F Major. A division I rating was awarded the band by each of the three judges.

The final home concert of the year was performed on May 8 with William "Billy" Redman, percussionist, as soloist.

The National Guard invited the band to play a concert at the dedication ceremonies for the new National Guard Armory in Storm Lake on Memorial Day.

As usual, the last official appearance of the band is the annual Memorial Day Parade.

Interspersed throughout the year are numerous solo and ensemble performances for many different clubs and organizations.

This, along with the schedule of nine summer band concerts indeed indicate that work is never done for an Alta band member.

HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND

VOCAL MUSIC

Vocal music at Alta High School has been a steadily improving endeavor. The mixed chorus and glee clubs had an excellent year and the small groups and soloists did very commendable work.

Activities for the vocal music department began with the annual Christmas program. Triple A Festival, an annual event held in conjunction with the Albert City and Aurelia schools, was next for the vocal department. The quality of the music, both contemporary and religious, made the program very enjoyable.

In preparation for small group contest, a pre-contest concert was held. The purpose of this concert was two-fold: it showed the local community what had been accomplished and gave the musicians experience. Contest was a success for the small groups. There were twenty-three division I ratings received and twenty-two division II's.

The spring concert included most of the numbers practiced throughout the year and the music to be sung at large group contest.

At contest the hard work chorus members had put forth paid off, for they received a division I rating. The girls' glee club and boys' glee club received division II ratings.

The final appearance for the mixed chorus was at the Commencement exercises where they sang "Climb Every Mountain."

ALTA 7 HOLSTEIN 27

Alta's inexperience and Holstein's weight advantage were the deciding factors in the first game of the 1960 season. The high point of the game for Alta was Myron Radke's return of a kickoff 80-yards for a touchdown.

ALTA 32 SANBORN 14

Fleet back Doug Patten scored three touchdowns and Myron Radke ran for 75-yards and a touchdown on a kickoff. Don Gustafson added the final tally on a pass.

ALTA 7 SUTHERLAND 14

Sutherland outlasted Alta in the closest game of the season. Doug Patten scored the only Alta touchdown on an end sweep.

ALTA 6 AURELIA 34

The Aurelia Bulldogs put a damper on the Homecoming activities for the Cyclones. Costly mistakes were only partially overcome when Myron Radke raced 75-yards on a kickoff return for Alta's only score.

ALTA 0 HARTLEY 13

Mistakes within the ten yard line were the determining factor as Alta came out on the bottom end of the score in another hard fought game.

ALTA 0 MILFORD 19

Milford's inspired offense and determined defense took the Cyclones by surprise, and they were unable to recuperate in time to reach pay dirt.

ALTA 13 PAULLINA 46

Paullina's fleet offense was too much for Alta's defense as the Panthers raced for seven touchdowns. The Cyclones hit pay dirt only twice, once on an 85-yard kick-off return by Doug Patten and again on a 40-yard pass from Paul Ruehmann to Dave Wolfe.

ALTA 7 PRIMGHAR 19

Although Alta drew first blood when alert defense guard, Bill Huseman, picked up a fumble and rambled 40-yards for the touchdown, they were unable to keep pace with the inspired Primghar eleven.

After the final gun of the last game, the Alta Cyclone football season was history.

Close observation reveals some interesting facts. For instance: Doug Patten lead the scoring for the Cyclones by rushing for 5 touchdowns, passing for another, and rushing for 3 extra points.

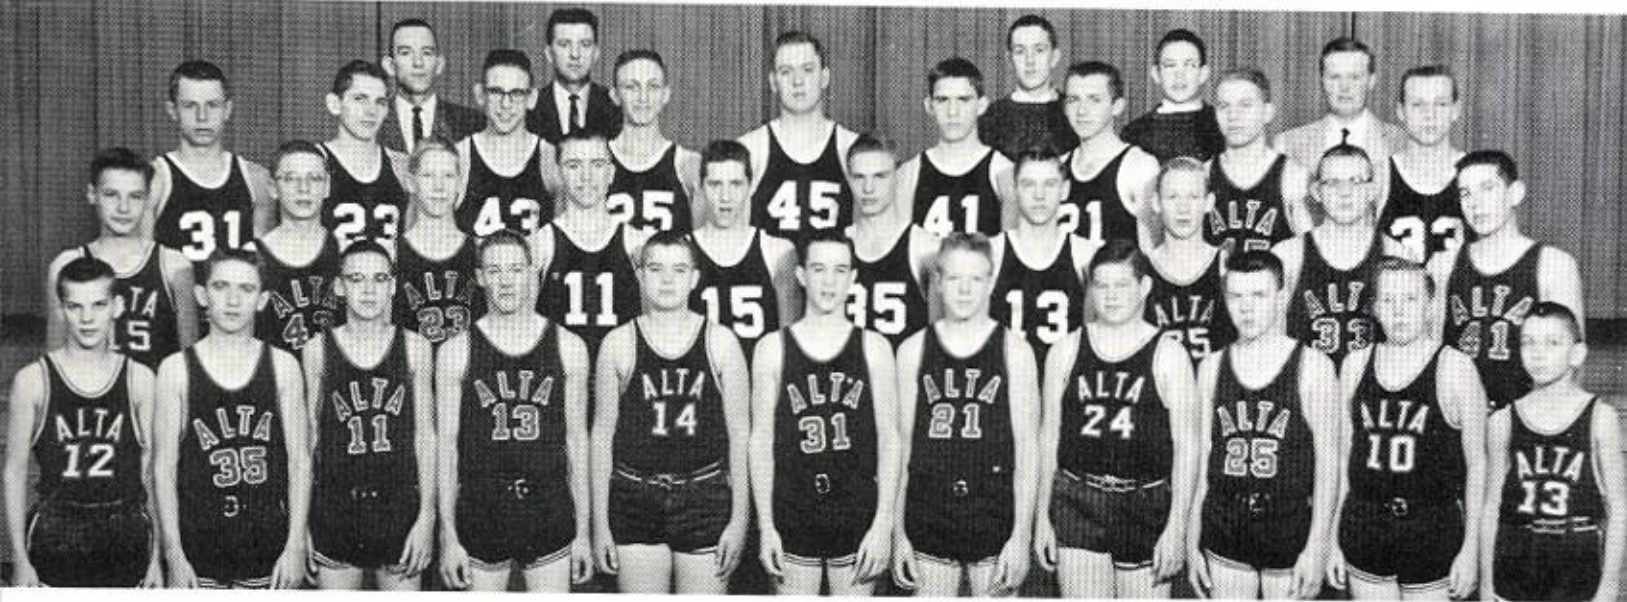

Myron Radke lead Alta's attack by gaining a total of 343 yards in 180 attempts, averaging 2.9 yards per carry. Myron was also the leading passer, completing 29 of 81 attempts for 309 yards. He was the team's punter, averaging 31.3 yards per kick.

Bill Huseman lead the Cyclones in averaging 4.2 yards per carry. Dave Wolfe was the leading receiver, catching 14 passes for a total of 172 yards with an average of 12.4 yards.

Alta's defensive unit was lead by Bob McDonald. He averaged 13.75 tackles per game and was the team's middle linebacker. Tom Grigg, tackle, was second with 7.4 tackles per game. That closes the history book for the 1960 Alta Cyclone's football season.

BASKETBALL SEASON

The defeat of the Cyclones by Sutherland in the District tournament semifinals brought to a close another cage season at Alta High School. Because of spotty playing and lack of height, the team was unable to capture a majority of victories. However, considerable hustle caused superior foes some anxious moments.

The team placed fifth in the Sioux Valley Conference. The leading scorer was Paul Ruehmann with 344 points. Dave Wolfe led the rebounding with 93 rebounds.

CYCLONE STAFF

This year, again, the Cyclone Staff, together with the editor, Diane Holtz, and the co-editors, have worked hard to make the '61 Cyclone a success.

The year's work is highlighted by the annual Yearbook Dance to which all staff members and alumni are invited. The evening is centered around the crowning of a Staff King and Queen.

The Cyclone is financed entirely by yearbook sales which means the staff's job is not an easy one, but very rewarding.

FFA

FFA is a national organization made up of rural youth who are interested in farming. Each year it has a state and national convention taking place in the spring and fall, where they elect officers for the coming year. Also each year, one week is designated as FFA Week in which they have many contests to publicize the FFA.

The members are required to have a supervised farming plan, either of crops or livestock which they can use as a start in the farming profession.

PARTY FOR KINDERGARTEN

FHA

"Family Unit in Iowa" was selected as the district project in FHA for the 1960-61 school year. This was a means of working toward the national objective of "Developing a better understanding of our family members and to contribute to their well being."

The annual Christmas Dance was one of the activities of the girls. Points were given throughout the year to girls who took an active part in FHA and who helped with extra projects. Those receiving the number of needed points went to Veishea.

The FHA flower is the red rose. It is symbolic of vibrant, glowing health which contributes to the happiness and efficiency in home and group life. The motto "Toward new horizons" expresses the purpose of the organization — learning to live better today in order that our lives and those of our families may be better tomorrow.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club is Alta High School's youngest organization. It was founded last year by a group of energetic science students under the guidance of Mr. McCoy.

As seems obvious, the purpose of the club is to allow members to pursue specific scientific interests. Meetings were held once a month. Special meetings were also provided when the occasion merited it.

It was a project of the Science Club to put the school's new science laboratory in order. Other projects included movies, glass blowing, and developing photographs.

In November the Club held open house at the P.T.A. Back-to-School Night. Groups of members conducted experiments to show the new equipment and apparatus in the science department.

During the year the Science Club took field trips to various places of interest. A highlight came when several members attended the Hawkeye Science Fair at Des Moines in April.

THE SCARLET AND BLACK STAFF

Harry Melander Jr. and Alan Harms introduced several new types of writing into the paper. Editorials appeared weekly, and the surveys and interviews were often on a more educational basis.

The Junior Class Play was a delightful comedy presented by twelve juniors, who were assisted by the rest of the class. Tom (David Wolfe), who has his trouble with girls; Oke (David Johnson), who feels he is irresistible; fascinating Babs (Beverly Hanson), who changes Tom's outlook; cute Peaches (Connie Langlet), Oke's girl for the moment; Birdie (Marva Dierenfeld), who changes places with Babs and gets a screen test; Chuck (Robert Radke), Birdie's tough boy friend who is disgusted by it all; Sylvia (Jean Mangold), the girl from home; Asma (Sally Carpenter), a colored maid; Tom's stern father and gay aunt (Laurel Lichtenberg and Marcia Hutton); the dignified Dean (Roger Anderson); and Alfred (Gary Peterson), a poet who writes blank verse, were brilliantly portrayed by the actors and actresses.

For the first time, an award was given to the best actor and actress. The two receiving these awards were Sally Carpenter in her role as Asma, and David Johnson, for the part of Oke.

A pep club was organized at the beginning of the football season this year. Our purpose is to promote good sportsmanship and school spirit.

A new feature of the pep club this year was to include the boys. In past years only girls have been members of the organization.

Activities include makings pompons, pep signs, and posters.

Officers for the 1960-61 season were: Janet Peterson, president; Jerry Meyer, vice-president; Alice Noble, secretary-treasurer.

CYCLONETTES

This is the fourth year for the Cyclonettes, who perform at the halftime of basketball games.

Our advisors for this year were Miss Knodel and Miss Aegerter. Our president, Sharen Huseman, has led the group for two years. Janet Smith, vice-president; Connie Langlet, secretary; Marva Dierenfeld, reporter. Council members are Beverly Hanson, Connie Langlet, Linda Sandine, Norma Lichtenberg, Judy Coombs, and Helene Dahl.

The 1961 Junior-Senior Banquet will linger in the minds of the juniors and seniors as a cherished moment, never to be forgotten.

The theme "Under Paris Skies" was carried out by a park scene which was highlighted by a very impressive fountain. Another main feature was the Eiffel Tower set against a majestic sky. The sidewalk cafe played a major part in creating the atmosphere of Gay Paree. For the banquet the decorations consisted of silhouette scenes of Paris and blue and white streamers, creating an air of romance.

Entertainment at the banquet was provided by members of the Junior Class. The vocal numbers presented carried out the theme of Paris.

The mothers of the Junior Class prepared the delicious dinner. It was served by waiters and waitresses from the Sophomore Class.

The intermission program at the Prom was enjoyed by all and very well presented by the Freshman and Sophomore Classes. Dancing music was provided by Schartman's Sextet from Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES

Homecoming was the first highlight of the 1960-61 school year. September 30 was the date.

The preparation of the floats began at the beginning of the week. The four classes were each doing their best to finish first in the ranking. But all knew there was only one first place and everyone received pleasure from working with his classmates.

Besides the building of floats during the week there was also choosing of king, queen, and their attendants. The attendants and escorts were introduced at the traditional pep rally and bonfire held Thursday evening. Pep talks were given by Coach McCoy, Queen Janet Peterson, and King Jerry Endreson.

On Friday afternoon the Homecoming Parade took place. Also the pep meeting on Main street was held. Friday night the band presented a half-time show at the game, during which the King and Queen were crowned.

The Homecoming game was played against Aurelia. Although we were defeated by Aurelia, our spirits were still high and an enjoyable Homecoming Dance was held after the game. Queen Janet and King Jerry reigned over the dance.

SENIOR CLASS ACTIVITIES

Walking in the same Indian summer sun past the apple trees we had once climbed, the swings we had swung in, we entered the familiar schoolhouse as seniors. This was no sudden culmination of our efforts and prestige; we had merely changed.

Again we built a homecoming float, "Give 'em the Works," the senior jinx going for naught as we lost our cyclone, and slipped to third. We held our quota of parties, (these differentiated from those of yore by slightly later hours and perhaps some added sophistication.)

Typing, office courses, English, social studies, agriculture, chemistry, industrial arts, and trigonometry comprised the available curricula. Certainly there was no deficiency of extracurricular activities. The music department shaped up well, but lamentably the athletic and academic records were not outstanding.

In a small school classes vary, and we held our individuality. If previous classes have been famous for ambition and aggressiveness, we are probably the most amiable collection of people ever to graduate, which in these warlike times may, after all, be a conspicuous virtue. We have gathered some experience and are not very much awed by the change from preps to wage-earners or collegians. Now, gauging past and anticipated experiences, we will impassively wipe the tears from our eyes and find new things to do.

Senior Class Play

Down to Earth, a three-act comedy by Betty Knapp, was presented by the senior class on April 13, 1961.

The rambunctious plot of this play was centered around the efforts of two straight-laced angels to claim the souls of two elderly people. Pilone, a cupid-playing half-angel, endeavored to thwart the efforts of his betters and stirred the cauldron effectively. Cast in the lead part of rich and cantankerous Augusta Applegate was Linda Cone. Dean Radke as Herman Howell, the other "old soul," is abetted by Alan Harms as Pilone in his effort to enrapture Augusta.

Augusta was plagued with a conglomeration of soft-soaping, money-seeking relatives. Orpha Teel, played by Alice Noble, hoped to live with her aunt, Augusta, and to provide her daughter, Ruthie (Frances Dahl), with the proper husband-hunting background. Baxter Bromsley (Harry Melander, Jr.) was aided by his wife, Millie (Nancy Kindwall), in his attempt to appropriate funds from "Aunt Gus" to advance his madcap inventions. Baxter's daughter, June (Mary Huseman), is engaged to Richard White (Jerry Endreson). Orpha was hopeful that Ruthie would attract rich and eccentric, (Myron Radke), Pilone misbehaved, and the result was a romantic plot and counter-plot. Diana the love-lorn maid, played by Daphne Holmes, provided a twist to the aims of angels, Wilfred (Phil Lietz) and Agnes (Karen Lietz).
